

UNIVERSITY of CALIFORNIA

Education Abroad Program

A Journey Through Time: Geology & Civilization

Summer 2012

SCOTLAND/ENGLAND

- Spend a summer in Edinburgh and Cambridge exploring how societies have been shaped by the origins of the earth.
- Study geologic time, plate tectonics, earth hazards & climate change.
- Earn 9 units of UC credit in 5 weeks.
- Excursions to National Mining Museum of Scotland, Bath & Stonehenge.

More info and apply online:
eap.ucop.edu/50thSchiffMac

Facebook Group:
facebook.com/50thSchiffMac

Deadline: April 1, 2012
First-come, first-served

Program Video:
youtu.be/_2jfbzM2DCo

Coursework

Lecture Class (4.5 units, Monday - Thursday mornings): Geologic time, plate tectonics, earth hazards, earth resources, extinctions, climate change: how these ideas arose in historical context.

Directed Group Study (4.5 units, Monday - Thursday afternoons): Excursions to geological sites, museums, historical and cultural sites including Arthur's Seat, the National Mining Museum of Scotland, Bath and Stonehenge.

Total Units: 9 UC units.

Faculty Leaders

Dr. Peter Schiffman, UC Davis
Professor Emeritus/
Research Geologist Emeritus
pschiffman@ucdavis.edu

Dr. Doug MacDougall, UC San Diego
Professor Emeritus of Earth Sciences,
Scripps Institution of Oceanography
jdmacdougall@ucsd.edu

Prerequisites

None

Eligibility

- 2.5GPA at time of application
- Good Academic Standing

Estimated Cost

$8,000 - 9,500

This estimate includes: all program fees, airfare, food/housing, insurance, books & personal expenses, local transportation.

Program Dates

June 23 – July 27, 2012

